

STYLE REVIEW

▲ White satin appliquéés create tone-on-tone dimension on this taffeta gown's bodice. Constance, $3,275, Vineyard

▶ A gunmetal hue and a delicate border make this invite feel formal, not stuffy. Sweetly Framed, $189 for 100, Wedding Paper Divas

◀ A linen ring pillow embroidered with a laurel wreath motif manages to feel both humble and regal at the same time. $25, Beve's Creations

Gustavian

The white-lacquered wooden finishes, spare, graceful silhouettes, and Scandinavian roots of this 18th-century style translate to a vignette of quietly elegant elements.

—LEIGH CRANDALL

◀ Here, the cake's decorative flourishes are reduced to their most natural shapes. Cake, Bijoux Doux; cake stand, $160, Vietri, replacements.com

▲ This centerpiece brings the restrained elegance of a classic Gustavian interior to the table. Seaport Flowers

▼ A vintage-style mirror handwritten with table numbers (in Swedish, too!) helps guests find their seats. Mirror, $249, Wisteria; calligraphy, love*jenna

CONTINUED

Our
Wedding Style
Inspiration:

Interior Design

The motifs, shapes, and palettes that define four of our favorite design movements are filled with creative wedding style inspiration.